Special Limerick Competition

We encourage all ages to create a fun limerick highlighting a concept associated with the Irish culture. Contestants should follow the common definition according to Dictionary.com: a limerick is a humorous verse of five lines, in which the first, second, and fifth-lines rhyme with each other, and the third and fourth lines, which are shorter, form a rhymes couplet. Deadline for submitting entries at csullivanjig@hotmail.com is May 3rd. All entries must be original entries not obtained from other published sources. Contributions from friends and family are permitted and should be acknowledged in the submission. Prizes will be awarded by 12 noon Sunday, May 7th. Fee: $5

Under 15	15 and over including Adults
720	721

Example: Ogden Nash (1902-71)

There was a young lady called Harris
 That nothing could ever embarrass
 Till the bath salts, one day
 In the tub where she lay
 Turned out to be Plaster of Paris
